vs.)	ORDER

MARISA CARDONA,)
Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Marisa Cardona (Cardona) (Filing No. 25). Cardona seeks a continuance of the trial scheduled for March 24, 2014. Cardona's counsel represents Cardona will submit an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Cardona consents to the motion and acknowledges she understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Cardona's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Cardona's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 25) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for April 28, 2014, before Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between March 19, 2014, and April 28, 2014, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 19th day of March, 2014.
